The Forgotten God | Week 5

Last Week

Has your view of the Holy Spirit changed when you think about it as a power source?

Opener

Can you share an experience where you needed to talk to someone about something important, but couldn't find the words?

Questions

Have you ever struggled bringing something to Jesus because you didn't know how? Did you resolve it or are you still working on it?

Does the idea of the Holy Spirit as an intercessor change the way you think about praying? In what way?

What did you think about the idea of people recognizing Jesus in you from the way you handle suffering in your life? Does this thought make you rethink the way you witness to others?

Can anyone share a story where the Holy Spirit taught them something? Do you think about your relationship with the Holy Spirit where he is a teacher? If not, how would this change the way you pray?

Apply SOAP (Scripture, Observation, Application, Prayer) to:

1 John 2:27 (NLT)

But you have received the Holy Spirit and he lives within you, so you don't need anyone to teach you what is true. For the Spirit teaches you everything you need to know, and what he teaches is true—it is not a lie. So just as he has taught you, remain in fellowship with Christ.
